Nexus Technologies - Internal HR Operational Policies (2026)

Nexus Technologies - Internal HR Operational Policies (2026)

SECTION 1: TALENT REQUISITION AND RECRUITING PROTOCOL

All headcount additions must be budgeted and approved through the HR Headcount Committee consisting of the VP of HR, Finance Controller, and Department VP. Standard job requisitions must be posted internally on Greenhouse for a minimum of 7 calendar days before external candidate sourcing begins. Background checks through Checkr are mandatory and verify 7-year criminal history, educational credentials, and past employment verification.

SECTION 2: CORPORATE SALARY BENCHMARKING BANDS (2026)

Compensation bands are refreshed annually using Radford and Mercer salary surveys to target the 75th percentile of the technology market:

- Level 1 (Associate): $85,000 - $110,000 base salary + 10% bonus target.

- Level 2 (Mid-Level): $115,000 - $145,000 base salary + 15% bonus target.

- Level 3 (Senior): $150,000 - $185,000 base salary + 20% bonus target.

- Level 4 (Staff / Lead): $190,000 - $235,000 base salary + 25% bonus target.

- Level 5 (Principal / Manager): $240,000 - $290,000 base salary + 30% bonus target.

- Level 6 (Director / Executive): $300,000 - $380,000 base salary + 40% bonus target.

SECTION 3: SEVERANCE AND EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION GUIDELINES

In the event of involuntary reduction in force (RIF) or mutual separation, eligible employees receive severance pay calculated as 2 weeks of base salary per completed year of tenure, with a minimum guaranteed floor of 4 weeks and a maximum ceiling of 26 weeks. Company-subsidized COBRA health coverage continues for the duration of the severance payment period.

SECTION 4: WORKPLACE HARASSMENT AND GRIEVANCE INVESTIGATIONS

The HR Employee Relations committee handles all workplace grievances. Reports submitted via the confidential hotline (hr-grievance@nexustech.internal) must acknowledge receipt within 24 hours. Formal investigations must conclude within 10 business days, culminating in a written determination memo signed by the Chief People Officer.
